

A Journey Through the Heart of Norway

August 18 - 31

The Gudbrandsdalslag of America is proud to present a 14 day journey featuring Norway's natural beauty, history and culture. The lag will journey through the heart of Norway to Telemark, Hedmark, Oslo and Gudbrandsdal, August 18-31, 2019.

The tour highlights will include

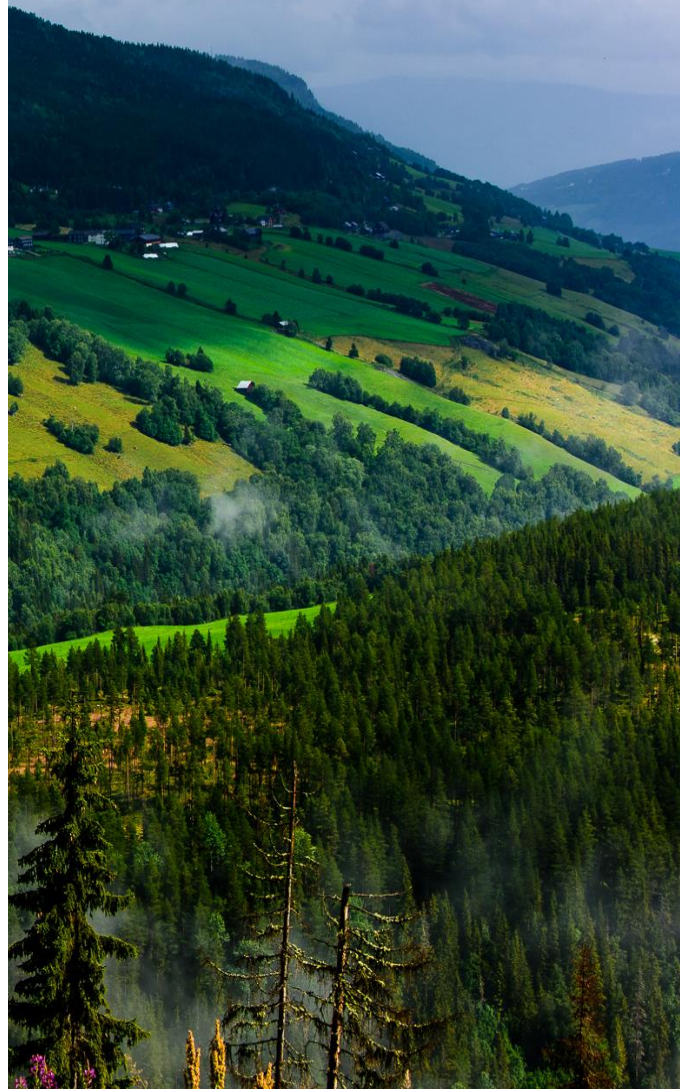

- Visit to sites and areas impacted by the German occupation during WWII.
- Learn more about the Norwegians that left their homeland for a chance at a better life in America.
- Visit local farmers in Gudbrandsdal, and learn about ancestral farms.
- Discover craftsmen and women who create porcelain, bunad brooches, candles and aquavit.
- Tour churches, museums and meet with local historielag members.

At this writing, 21 persons have registered their desire to be a part of the tour group. Limited space remains, however, decisions need to be made promptly. Air space will be released soon after which airfare will be subject to availability.
